AMERICAN CONSUL THE BUSIEST MAN IN COPENHAGEN

[Associated Press] COPENHAGEN, Denmark. — This city is now the Mecca of Germans and the hotels are full of merchants, salesmen and others intent upon doing business with the neutral world, especially the United States.

The busiest office in town at present is that of the American Consul General, and Mr. Winslow is doing his utmost to assist the exporters of America in the sale of their commodities.

Exporters should bear in mind, said Mr. Winslow, that only necessities can be sold to Europe at the present time and no exports will be made by Danish importers. Grain, cotton, flour, provisions, foot-wear, clothing, canned goods, metals and all raw materials will have the call.

While the family were eating dinner burglars scaled a fifteen-foot porch at the house of William J. Nichols, Stratford, a real estate dealer, and escaped with jewelry and heirlooms valued at $1000.
